

Prostate Cancer Foundation Leadership Academy

December 3–5, 2026 | PCF Offices, Santa Monica, CA

Participant Application

About the Program

Held December 3-5, 2026, in Santa Monica, this unique mentoring program is led by experts in prostate cancer care who are deeply committed to training the next generation. Participants sharpen skills and knowledge in leading teams, communicating effectively with peers and patients, and providing exceptional, guideline-concordant care across the prostate cancer continuum. There is also ample time to build lasting connections with peers and mentors. PCF covers your hotel and travel costs and provides a formal certificate when you complete the program.

Who Should Apply

The PCF Leadership Academy is open to U.S. physicians, including urology and medical oncology fellows, senior residents, and early to mid-career urologists and medical oncologists who care for patients with prostate cancer. Interest in community practice or academic-community collaborations is preferred but not required.

PCF will review applications for evidence of merit, leadership potential, goals for attendance, commitment to caring for patients with prostate cancer, and ability to attend the full 3-day program. Plan to arrive by late morning December 3 if possible and depart the afternoon of December 5.
